What is CDBG?

• The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) is federal money allocated to the City through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

• Allows funding for programs for low-income residents, subject to federal regulations.

• Up to 15% of the City’s total annual allocation can be expended for Public Services Programs.
Program Requirements

• Must serve low-income residents in the City of Peoria (as defined by HUD).
• Must be able to obtain client-based outcomes that demonstrate measurable impacts.
• Must submit quarterly reporting documents for clients served, outcomes collected, and expenses incurred (see examples on website)
• Must be able to adhere to monitoring requirements (see Monitoring Checklist on website)
Eligible Categories

- Youth Services (13-19)
- Child Care Services (Under 13)
- Employment Training
- Services for Abused and Neglected Children
- Substance Abuse Services

- Ongoing grants or non-emergency payments to individuals for food, clothing, rent, utilities or other income payments.

- Purchase of food, supplies or equipment

- Explicitly religious activities
Funding Details

- Reimbursement only
- Must be $10,000-$30,000
- Only one application per organization
- Funding may not be available until late fall
- CDBG request cannot exceed 50% of total program funding.
- Grant is primarily for salaries/benefits/taxes of direct service staff but can include up to 5% for administrative salaries/benefits/taxes.
How is Funding Allocated?

- The CDBG Public Services Advisory Commission is a citizen Commission of the City of Peoria.
- Members are appointed by the Mayor and approved by City Council.
- These members review and rank all applications and provide funding recommendations to the City Council for approval.
- This is a competitive process, and funding is not guaranteed.
