She added that the page following the goals report is a chart of book clubs offered by or at Peoria Public Library. Information provided for each club includes the name of the book club, who runs it, where and when it meets, how long it has been in existence, and what kinds of books are read and discussed.

C. Align Peoria
   Randall reported that he and Alyce Jackson have been attending the Align Peoria meetings. There will be a collaborative kick-off event for the Summer Reading Program on Saturday, June 1 at Lakeview Branch. Randall thanked Alyce for her work on this committee.

Based on the results of this study, pay grade minimums and maximums will be increased as needed per the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

F. 10-Week Check-ins
Randall reported that the managers have completed the check-ins with their staff members and now he and Roberta are meeting with the managers they each supervise.

G. Kiwanis
Randall reported that he spoke to the Kiwanis Club recently as a result of an invitation from Kiwanis Club member Norm Burdick. Randall thanked Norm for extending this invitation to him.

REPORT OF LIBRARY BOARD LIAISON TO THE FRIENDS OF PEORIA PUBLIC LIBRARY
Margaret Cousin drew Board members’ attention to the April 2019 Friends Liaison Report and highlighted the following items:

- As it was Dave Weiss’ last Board meeting, he was commemorated with a proclamation from Mayor Ardis read and presented to Dave by Council Member Sid Ruckriegel.
- The Friends Board is paying for a StoryWalk post in Dave Weiss’ name. Twenty posts have been sold so far. Margaret thanked Alyce Jackson and the Board members who have worked on this project. At the grand opening of the StoryWalk, a photo will be taken of each donor with their post. Gwen Ayler, who with Katy Bauml, had the idea to bring StoryWalk to Peoria, is sponsoring a post to honor her great-grandmother who taught her to read. Alyce will amend the StoryWalk flyer when the next StoryWalk site is selected and she will contact the Board and all of the donors when the date of the grand opening is selected.
