Downtown pavement patching project resuming Monday, May 8

Drivers should be mindful of on-street Downtown parking options next week

May 4, 2023 (Peoria, IL) The Downtown pavement patching project will resume next week, beginning on Monday, May 8. There will be no restrictions for on-street parking over the weekend.

Beginning on Monday, May 8, there will be no parking on Fulton Street between NE Madison Avenue and SW Jefferson Avenue. Restrictions will continue through Wednesday, May 10, and will include overnight hours.

Starting on Wednesday, May 10, there will be no parking on Fulton Street between NE Madison Avenue and SW Monroe Street. Restrictions will continue through Friday, May 12, and will include overnight hours.

Starting on Friday, May 12, there will be no parking on NE Madison Avenue between Fulton and Main streets. Parking on this portion of NE Madison Avenue will be available overnight and over the weekend. However, restrictions will resume on Monday, May 15.

All work is weather dependent. Drivers should use extra caution in the area. Pedestrians utilizing crosswalks in the area should also be mindful of the work.
