University Street Traffic Pattern Switch Starting Thursday, Sept. 4

The switch will occur on University Street between Pioneer Parkway and Candletree Drive

Sept. 3, 2025 (Peoria, IL) Beginning at noon on Thursday, Sept. 4, traffic patterns at the intersection of N. University Street and W. Pioneer Parkway will change.

The current head-to-head traffic configuration will switch from the east side of N. University Street between W. Pioneer Parkway and W. Candletree Drive to the west side of N. University Street.

The current lane closure on the west side of N. University Street between W. Pioneer Parkway and W. Candletree Drive will switch to the east side of N. University Street.

The traffic pattern change is necessary as part of the University Street and Pioneer Parkway Intersection Reconstruction Project. Drivers should be mindful of the change and use extra caution in the area.
